What can't you do in the classroom?

Can you eat food?

Can you talk with your friends loudly?

Can you play football?

Let's start!

Hi! My name is Michael. I'm sixteen years old and I live in London. There are many rules in my school! We mustn't listen to music, we mustn't run in the corridors, we mustn't eat chewing-gum in the school,... But we must wear a uniform. I hate the school uniform! Another rule that I don't like: we must do our homework! If we break the school rules, we have detention!

Hello! My name is Anna, I'm sixteen years old and I live in Houston, Texas. We must follow a lot of rules in our school. We mustn't smoke in the school and we mustn't take our smartphones to school, but nobody follows that rule! We must arrive on time at school. If we are late, the headmaster calls our parents and we have detention! We must read a lot of books and do our homework.

Hi! My name is Alex, I'm seventeen years old and I live in Paris. We must listen to our teachers in our school and we must be polite. We mustn't fight in the school and we mustn't swear! We mustn't be late in school and we mustn't sleep in class! We mustn't listen to music in the classroom or in the corridors, but we can listen to music in the playground.

DIRECTIONS: Read the text about the school rules.
