Exercise

Reading Station

Exercise: Read the conversation and do the exercises below.

Jay and Nida are talking about Adam's essay they read from the magazine.

Jay: Did you finish reading Adam's essay about living in a city or the countryside?

Nida: Yes. I finished it last night. Do you agree with him?

Jay: I do. I want to live in a more modern and convenient place. How about you?

Nida: Well, I don't think so. You know that I came from a big city and for me, everything there is terrible!

Jay: Really? How?

Nida: It's noisy because there are so many cars on the road and many places are crowded. Things are more expensive. Moreover, houses are smaller. I didn't have space to do things I wanted to do.

Jay: But, I like that there are a lot of places to go. Besides, you even have public transportations to use.

Nida: We do, but the traffic jams make it difficult for us to go out. It's so boring.

Jay: I see. That's why your family moved here, right?

Nida: Yes. My mom is super happy with the beautiful scenery and fresh air here. I like that we can go picnic near the lake every weekend, and we can buy things at a cheaper price!

Jay: Hahaha, I like that, too!

A photograph of a sunset over a field of tall grass. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow. The grass in the foreground is tall and has some seed heads that are catching the light. The sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and blue. A semi-transparent white rounded rectangle is overlaid on the center of the image, containing the text.
