HOW FANBOYS CONNECT WORDS/PHRASES/CLAUSE

FANBOYS can be used to join two or more words/phrases.

- Example: We hike and camp every summer. [And joins two verbs.]
- Example: We hike along scenic trails or in the wilderness [or joins two phrases]
- The old castle seemed grand yet mysterious. [yet joins two adjectives]

FANBOYS are also used to join two independent clauses. When combining two independent clause, you place a comma before the coordinating conjunction.

- Example: The girl ran from her car to the building, for she was late to her appointment.
- Example: The bear snarled and growled, yet the hiker remained calm and composed.
