Dear Andy,

How are you? I am writing to you from Hawaii. I am here with my parents and my little sister, Anny. We are staying in a very nice hotel with two swimming pools and a big garden.

We get up at 8.00 o'clock every morning. We have a really big breakfast, and then we go to the beach where we spend all the day playing, sunbathing and swimming. Mum always takes care of our skin. She makes us wear a cap to protect our heads from the sun.

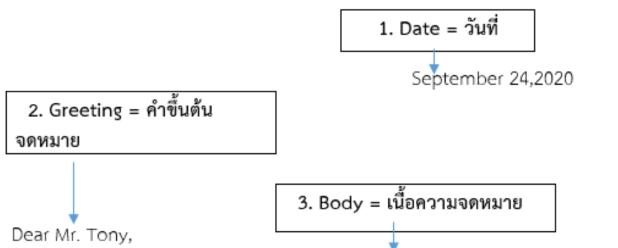

In the afternoon, we go back to the hotel. Then we have a shower, eat a piece of cake and get dressed. We walk to the town center, and there my father buys us an ice-cream. I love it!

I am looking forward to hearing from you.

Miss you,

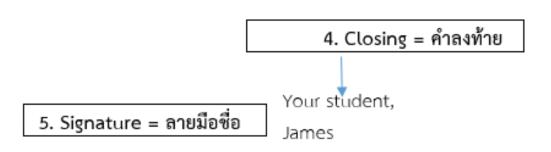

Peter

I wanted to let you know how much I love the seventh grade at Boston School. We have so much fun in the seventh grade. We get to read lots of books and take tests on the computer. We play a lot of games to help us learn about math. However, there are projects. I think the seventh grade is the best grade ever! You should come to our class one day and be a seventh grader with us. I think it would be more fun than being the principal.
