Kanchanaburi Is Bigger Than Our City! (1)

Kanchanaburi

The Bridge Over
the River Kwai

A yellow and red diesel locomotive is shown from a front-three-quarter view, traveling on a narrow-gauge railway. The train is crossing a wooden trestle bridge that spans a deep, lush green valley. To the left of the bridge, a steep, rocky cliffside is visible, with some green vegetation growing on it. The locomotive has two headlights on top and a small number '4011' on its side. The overall scene is set in a mountainous, forested area.

Dear Pim,

POSTCARD

Greetings from Kwai River! My friends and I are having a great time staying near the river. Did you know that Kanchanaburi is much bigger than our city? I found that everything here is different from our place. We have to wear shorts because the weather is hotter here. Kanchanaburi is famous for waterfalls. People like visiting them. Things are more expensive, so I have to buy you cheaper souvenirs at the local markets. However, people here are nice, and they always welcome tourists. I suggest you come here in the summer. Here is a photo of me. See you in the next two weeks.
