Word Station

craft (n.)

Def. an activity involving a special skill at making things with your hands

raffle (n.)

Def. a way of making money for a particular project or organization. People buy tickets with numbers on them, and some of these numbers are later chosen to win prizes.

An illustration of an auction scene. A male auctioneer in a purple tuxedo stands on a stage, holding a gavel and gesturing towards a painting on an easel. The painting depicts a landscape with green hills and a blue sky. A sign in front of the easel displays the number '100000'. In the foreground, four people are seated in an audience, each holding a yellow sign that says 'BID'. Two spotlights are positioned above the stage, casting light on the auctioneer and the painting. The background features a red curtain.

auction (n.)

Def. a public sale in which things are sold to the person who offers the most money for them.

bounce (v.)

Def. to jump up and down on something

bidding
