The image features a central text overlay on a background of traditional Chinese medicine. The text, 'Conventional and Complementary Medicine', is displayed in a bold, black, sans-serif font. The words 'Conventional' and 'Medicine' are in black, while 'and' and 'Complementary' are in red. The background shows a person's hands in a dark purple traditional garment holding a patient's hand. In the foreground, several bowls contain various dried herbs and ingredients, including slices of ginger, licorice, and other medicinal plants. The overall scene is set on a wooden surface, suggesting a traditional medical practice.
