ประโยคคำสั่ง (Imperatives)

- Imperatives tell people what to do and what not to do. Instructions are often in imperatives.
- If they are used at the wrong time, imperatives can sound too direct or rude.
- Imperatives do not have a subject in them. The subject is the person that the speaker says the sentence to.
- Verbs in imperatives are in their base form. This means that they have no -s, -ed, or -ing form. For am, are, and is, the base verb is be.
- Negative imperatives have don't or do not before the verb.
- Imperatives can also have words or phrases such as always, never, please, first, after that, and remember to in them.
- Here are some examples of imperatives:

Close the door.

Please close the door.

Don't close the door.

Always close the door after you leave.
