The History of St. Valentine's Day

Saint Valentine's Day is on the 14th of February. People all around the world write cards for their boyfriends or girlfriends on this day. Lots of people buy flowers and other gifts on St. Valentine's Day. But why do we have this day? Who was the first Valentine? This is the story of Saint Valentine.

About 1700 years ago there was a man called Valentine. He was a priest. He liked to see young people in love. He wanted people to get married because he wanted them to have a family.

But the Emperor Claudius didn't want men to get married. He wanted men to fight in the army. He wanted more soldiers.

Valentine didn't agree. He helped men and women to get married in secret. Emperor Claudius didn't know about this.

When Claudius heard the story of Valentine, he was very angry. He put Valentine in jail for 20 years.

After twenty years, Claudius killed Valentine on February 14th. Everybody thought Valentine was a good man because he helped lovers. That's why we have St. Valentine's Day every year.
