What does each season mean to you?

Spring is a time of renewal and rebirth. It includes spring cleaning and decluttering, preparing for our gardens, and enjoying the first signs of spring arriving as the early flowers, or buds beginning to open and certain birds returning. What will the rebirthed and renewed you look like?

Summer is a time of blooming gardens, enjoying hot summer weekends at the cottage or in our backyards, perhaps a barbecue or bon fire with friends and loved ones. We can honour the summer season by making the most of it. What are some ways that you can feel an inner joy and child-like delight this summer?

Fall or autumn is the season known as harvest time, as we reap what we sowed. Using the fruits and vegetables by preparing them to be used during the winter. If you are interested in this, books and videos online can assist you in learning or ask an older relative or neighbour for some tips on how to do it.

Winter time is often associated with festivities and celebration around religious holidays and new year's celebrations. Also a time of cooking and baking for those celebrations and perhaps exchanging gifts with family and friends. If you enjoy winter sports or walking outdoors, it may mean a time of outdoor joy and activity for you and this will help you to connect with the earth and universe. How will you look after yourself to get through the winter season
