Giving Advice

Objective

Be able to give and ask for advice
in the provided situations.

Asking for Advice

An illustration of a man with brown hair, wearing a blue long-sleeved shirt and blue pants, sitting on a green cushion. He has a thoughtful expression, with his hand on his chin. Three speech bubbles are connected to him, each containing a question. The background is a light purple gradient with a large blue circular shape behind the man. There are also two small white speech bubbles with question marks, one near his head and one on the green cushion.

Can you give me some advice?

What should I do?

What do you think I should do?

What's
your advice?

Do you have any piece of advice for me?

What should
I do?

What
would you advise me?

Giving Advice

I think

.....

Why don't you ...?

I have a backache.
What should I do?

I think you should see the doctor.

An illustration of a boy and a girl in conversation. The boy, on the left, has brown hair and is wearing a blue long-sleeved shirt. He has his right hand on his head, looking thoughtful. A light blue speech bubble with a purple border is connected to his head, containing the text: "I always get a bad sunburn. What would you advise me?". The girl, on the right, has black hair with a teal headband and is wearing a teal long-sleeved shirt. She is pointing her right hand towards the boy. A yellow speech bubble with a purple border is connected to her head, containing the text: "Why don't you try sunscreen cream?". The background is a light purple color with a white circular shape behind the characters.

I always get a bad sunburn. What would you advise me?

Why don't you try sunscreen cream?
