Tom:	Wow, Lina! There are many kinds of houses here. Can you tell me about them?
Lina:	Sure, Tom! Over there, you see those houses in a row. Those are 1).....(s) They share walls with each other.
Tom:	Cool! What about that tall building?
Lina:	That's 2)..... building. Lots of people live there, each family has their own unit.
Tom:	I see. What are those houses that stand alone called?
Lina:	Those are 3)..... They don't share walls with any other house and have their own yard.
Tom:	What about these two houses connected by one wall?
Lina:	Those are 4)..... They share one wall but have their own separate space.
Tom:	I noticed some single-story houses, they look nice.
Lina:	I agree with that, 5)..... are single-story houses. They are great for people who don't want stairs.
Tom:	What about those small, cozy-looking houses?
Lina:	Those are 6)..... They're often found in the countryside and look very charming.
Tom:	Thanks, Lina! Now I know so much more about the different houses here.
Lina:	You're welcome, Tom! It's fun to learn about different homes.
