Hint Story 1:

Yesterday, Mike was very excited because he had an important match in the afternoon. At 2 PM, he arrived at the court and started warming up. While he was practicing his serves, his coach was watching him closely and giving him tips. At 3 PM, the match started, and Mike was playing against a tough opponent.

Hint Story 1:

During the game, Mike was running back and forth, trying to return every ball. He hit a powerful shot, and the ball flew over the net, landing just inside the opponent's line. The crowd cheered loudly. By 5 PM, Mike had won the match and was holding a trophy in his hands. He was very proud of his victory.

Hint Story 3:

Alex loved being outside, but what really excited him was his secret sport. Every weekend, he was heading to a special field with his friends, carrying a heavy stick with a curved end. He was wearing gloves and a helmet to stay safe from the hard ball that could fly really fast.

Hint Story 3:

The game involved lots of running, passing the ball to friends, and trying to score goals. Sometimes, the games were getting pretty rough, but Alex loved the excitement and teamwork.

Hint Story 4:

Jamie had a cool hobby. After school, she was going to the beach, especially when it was windy. She always brought a big, colorful kite that looked like it could lift her off the ground.

Hint Story 4:

She was tying herself to the kite with a harness, then she was running along the sand and into the water. Soon, she was skimming across the waves, doing tricks and jumps. The more wind, the more fun it was. Jamie loved feeling almost weightless as she was soaring and splashing.
