The Fun Fair

Learning Objectives

- 1. Students will be able to define and pronounce vocabulary about a fun fair.
- 2. Students will be able to read a poster, and write answers to describe the details of a fun fair.

craft (n.)

an activity involving a special skill at making things with your hands

raffle (n.)

an activity in which people buy tickets with different numbers, some of which are later chosen to win prizes.

An illustration of an auction scene. A male auctioneer in a purple tuxedo and white gloves stands on a stage, holding a wooden gavel in his left hand and gesturing with his right. He is positioned between two spotlights that cast beams of light onto him. To his right is a wooden podium with a yellow sign. Further right, a landscape painting of green hills under a blue sky is displayed on an easel. Below the painting is a white sign with the number '100000'. In the foreground, four people are seated in rows of chairs, facing the stage. From left to right: a woman with grey hair in a red dress, a man with glasses in a black shirt, a woman with black hair in a red dress, and a man with a beard in a black shirt. The first, third, and fourth individuals are holding up yellow paddles with the word 'BID' written on them. The background consists of a deep red curtain.

a public sale where goods or services are sold to the highest bidder

An illustration showing five hands holding up circular signs that say 'BID'. The signs have a red center with 'BID' in yellow, and a yellow outer ring with 'BID' in red. The hands are of different skin tones and are holding the signs in front of a blue background with vertical stripes. A white speech bubble with the word 'bidding (n.)' is in the top right, and a blue speech bubble with the definition is at the bottom.

bidding (n.)

the act of offering prices, especially at an auction

bounce (v.)
