

On Christmas Eve my family and I always go to my grandparents house we eat a big dinner then we sing Christmas carols and tell stories I asked my sister what do you want for Christmas she said I want a dollhouse our parents gave us a big surprise they said we are going to Disney World for Christmas I couldn't believe it we were so excited we packed our bags and went to bed early