Past Continuous Tense

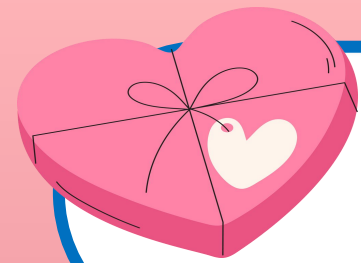

What is Past Continuous Tense?

Past Continuous is a verb tense we use to talk about actions that were happening at a specific moment in the past. Think of it as a little movie clip: something was in progress, not finished yet.

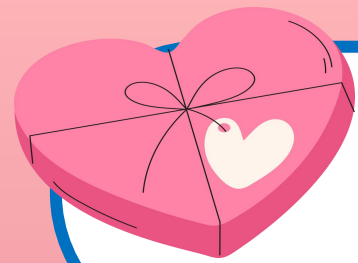

Affirmative

Structure: S + was / were + v-ing.

Examples

- ❖ He was playing football in the school field yesterday afternoon.
- ❖ They were cooking dinner in the kitchen when their mother came home.
- ❖ She was reading a novel in her bedroom last night.

Negative

Structure: S + wasn't / weren't + v-ing.

Examples

- ❖ They weren't watching TV after dinner; they were doing homework.
- ❖ I wasn't riding my bicycle this morning; I was taking the bus.
- ❖ We weren't studying English for the exam; we were reviewing math instead.

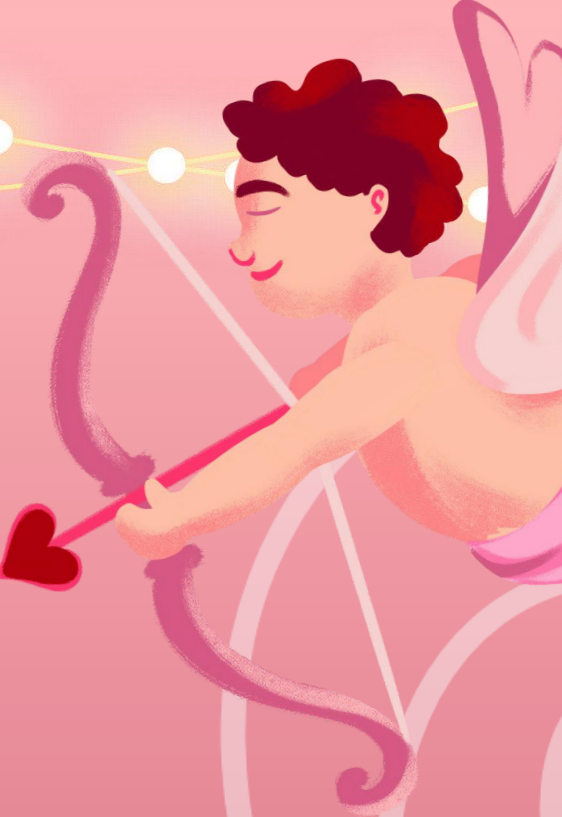

Question

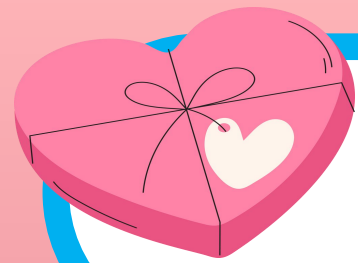

Structure: Was/Were + s + v-ing ?

Examples

A: Were you riding your bicycle to school this morning?

B: Yes, I was.

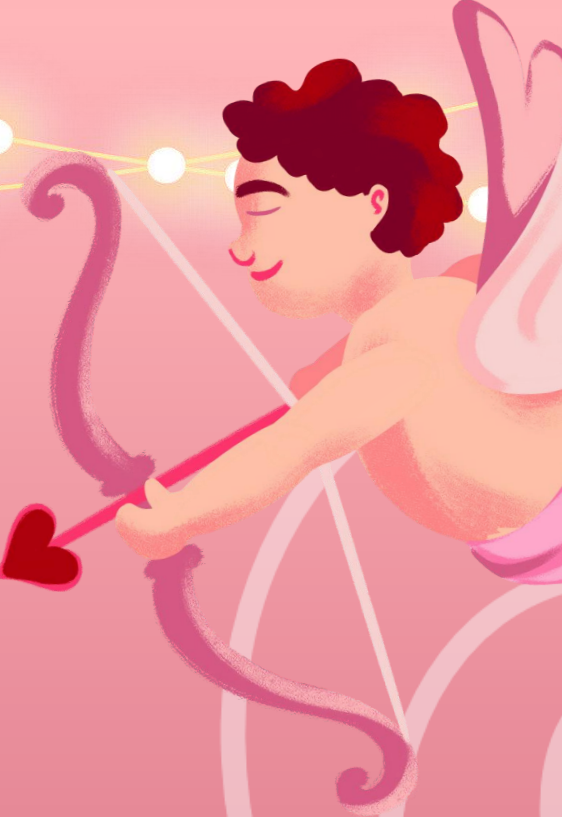

Question
