The background is a vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of a child's play area. At the top, a string of colorful triangular bunting flags (yellow, blue, red) hangs across the frame. In the upper center, two Polaroid-style photos are shown, one with a magnifying glass over it. The central focus is a large white oval with a dashed black border, containing three lines of Thai text. To the left, a girl with black hair and a blue shirt sits on the floor, holding two blue cards. To the right, a girl with black hair and a pink shirt sits on the floor, holding a red card. The floor is covered with various toys: colorful puzzle pieces, a yellow block with geometric shapes, and a pink heart. In the background, there's a yellow house on a green hill under a blue sky with white clouds.
