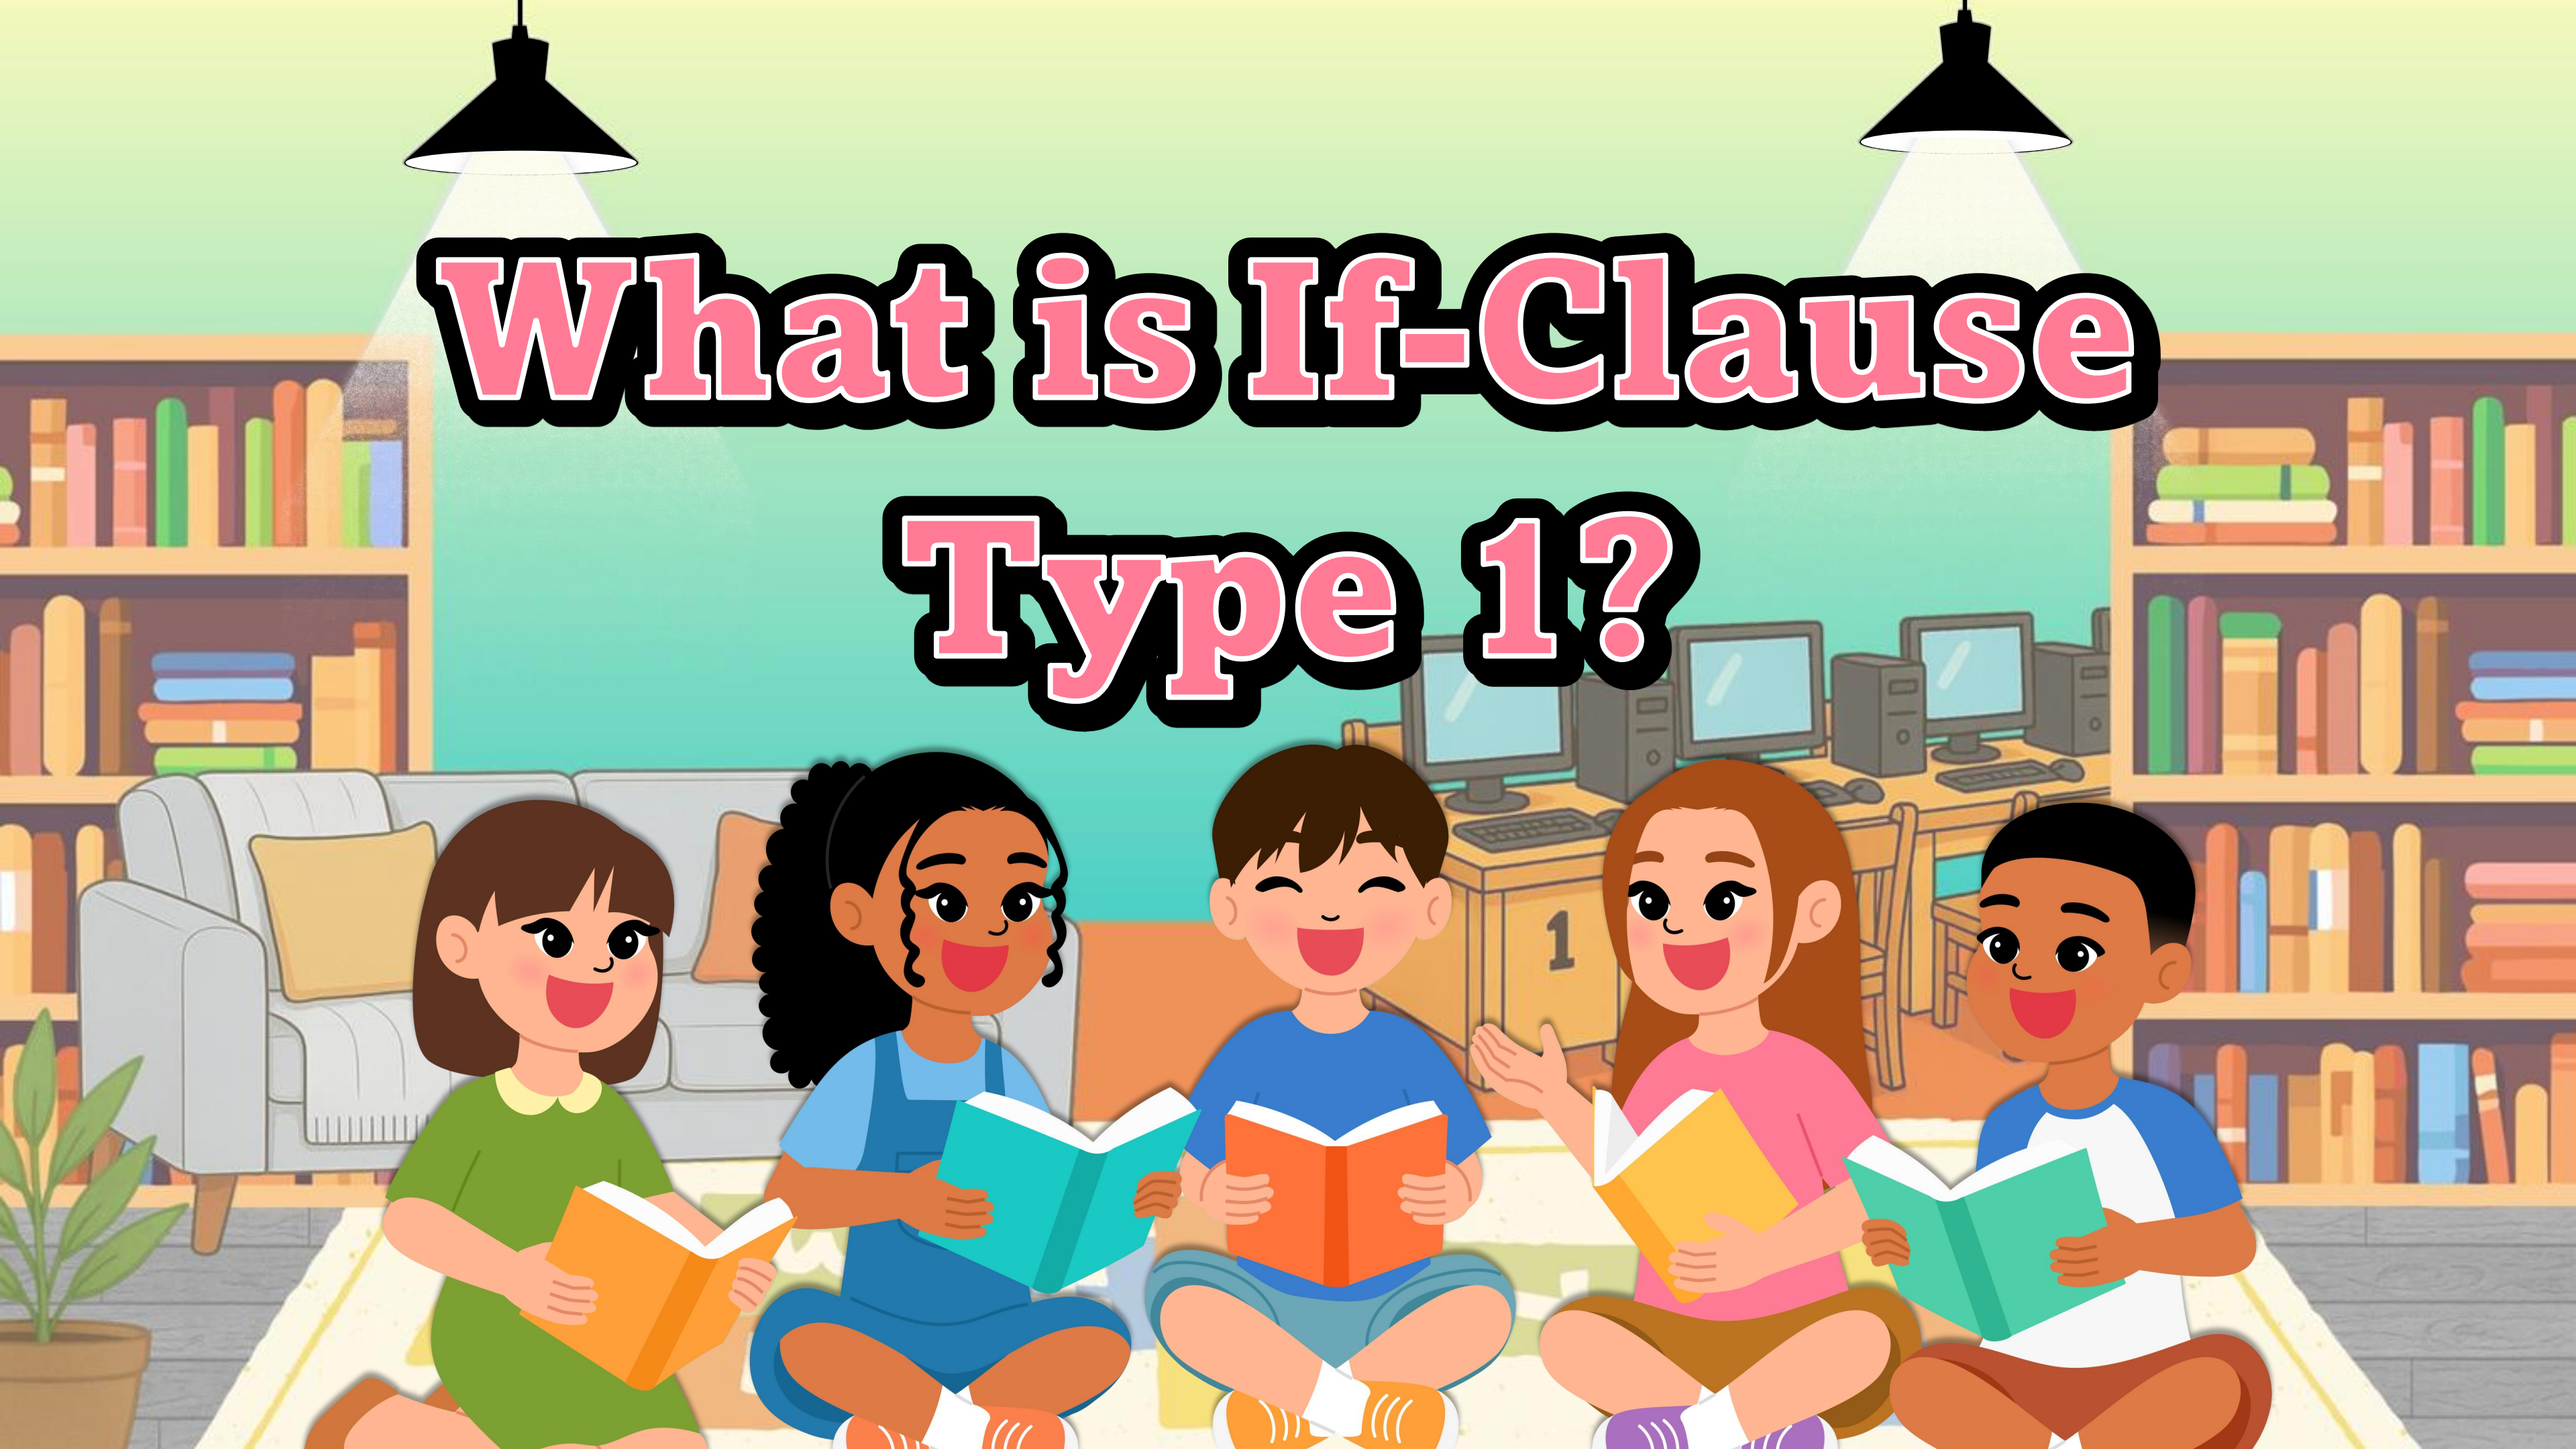
If-Clause Type 1



What is If-Clause
Type 1?

If-Clause Type 1

What is If-Clause Type 1?

The First Conditional is used to talk about real, possible future situations and their expected results. We believe the condition can happen.

When do we use
If-Clause Type 1?

If-Clause Type 1

When do we use If-Clause Type 1?

Possible future situations

For things that can really happen in the future.

- If I finish my homework early, I will watch TV.
- If she misses the bus, she will be late.

If-Clause Type 1

When do we use If-Clause Type 1?

Warnings and consequences

To show cause → result, especially for safety or rules.

- If you touch the wire, you will get an electric shock.
- If you don't wear a helmet, you will get hurt.

If-Clause Type 1

When do we use If-Clause Type 1?

Promises or offers

To say what you will do if something happens.

- If you need help, I will help you.
- If you come to my house, I will cook for you.

If-Clause Type 1

When do we use If-Clause Type 1?

Advice

To give suggestions about future actions.

- If you feel tired, you should rest.
- If you want to improve English, you must practice every day.

If-Clause Type 1

When do we use If-Clause Type 1?

Commands or instructions

Often used in rules or instructions.

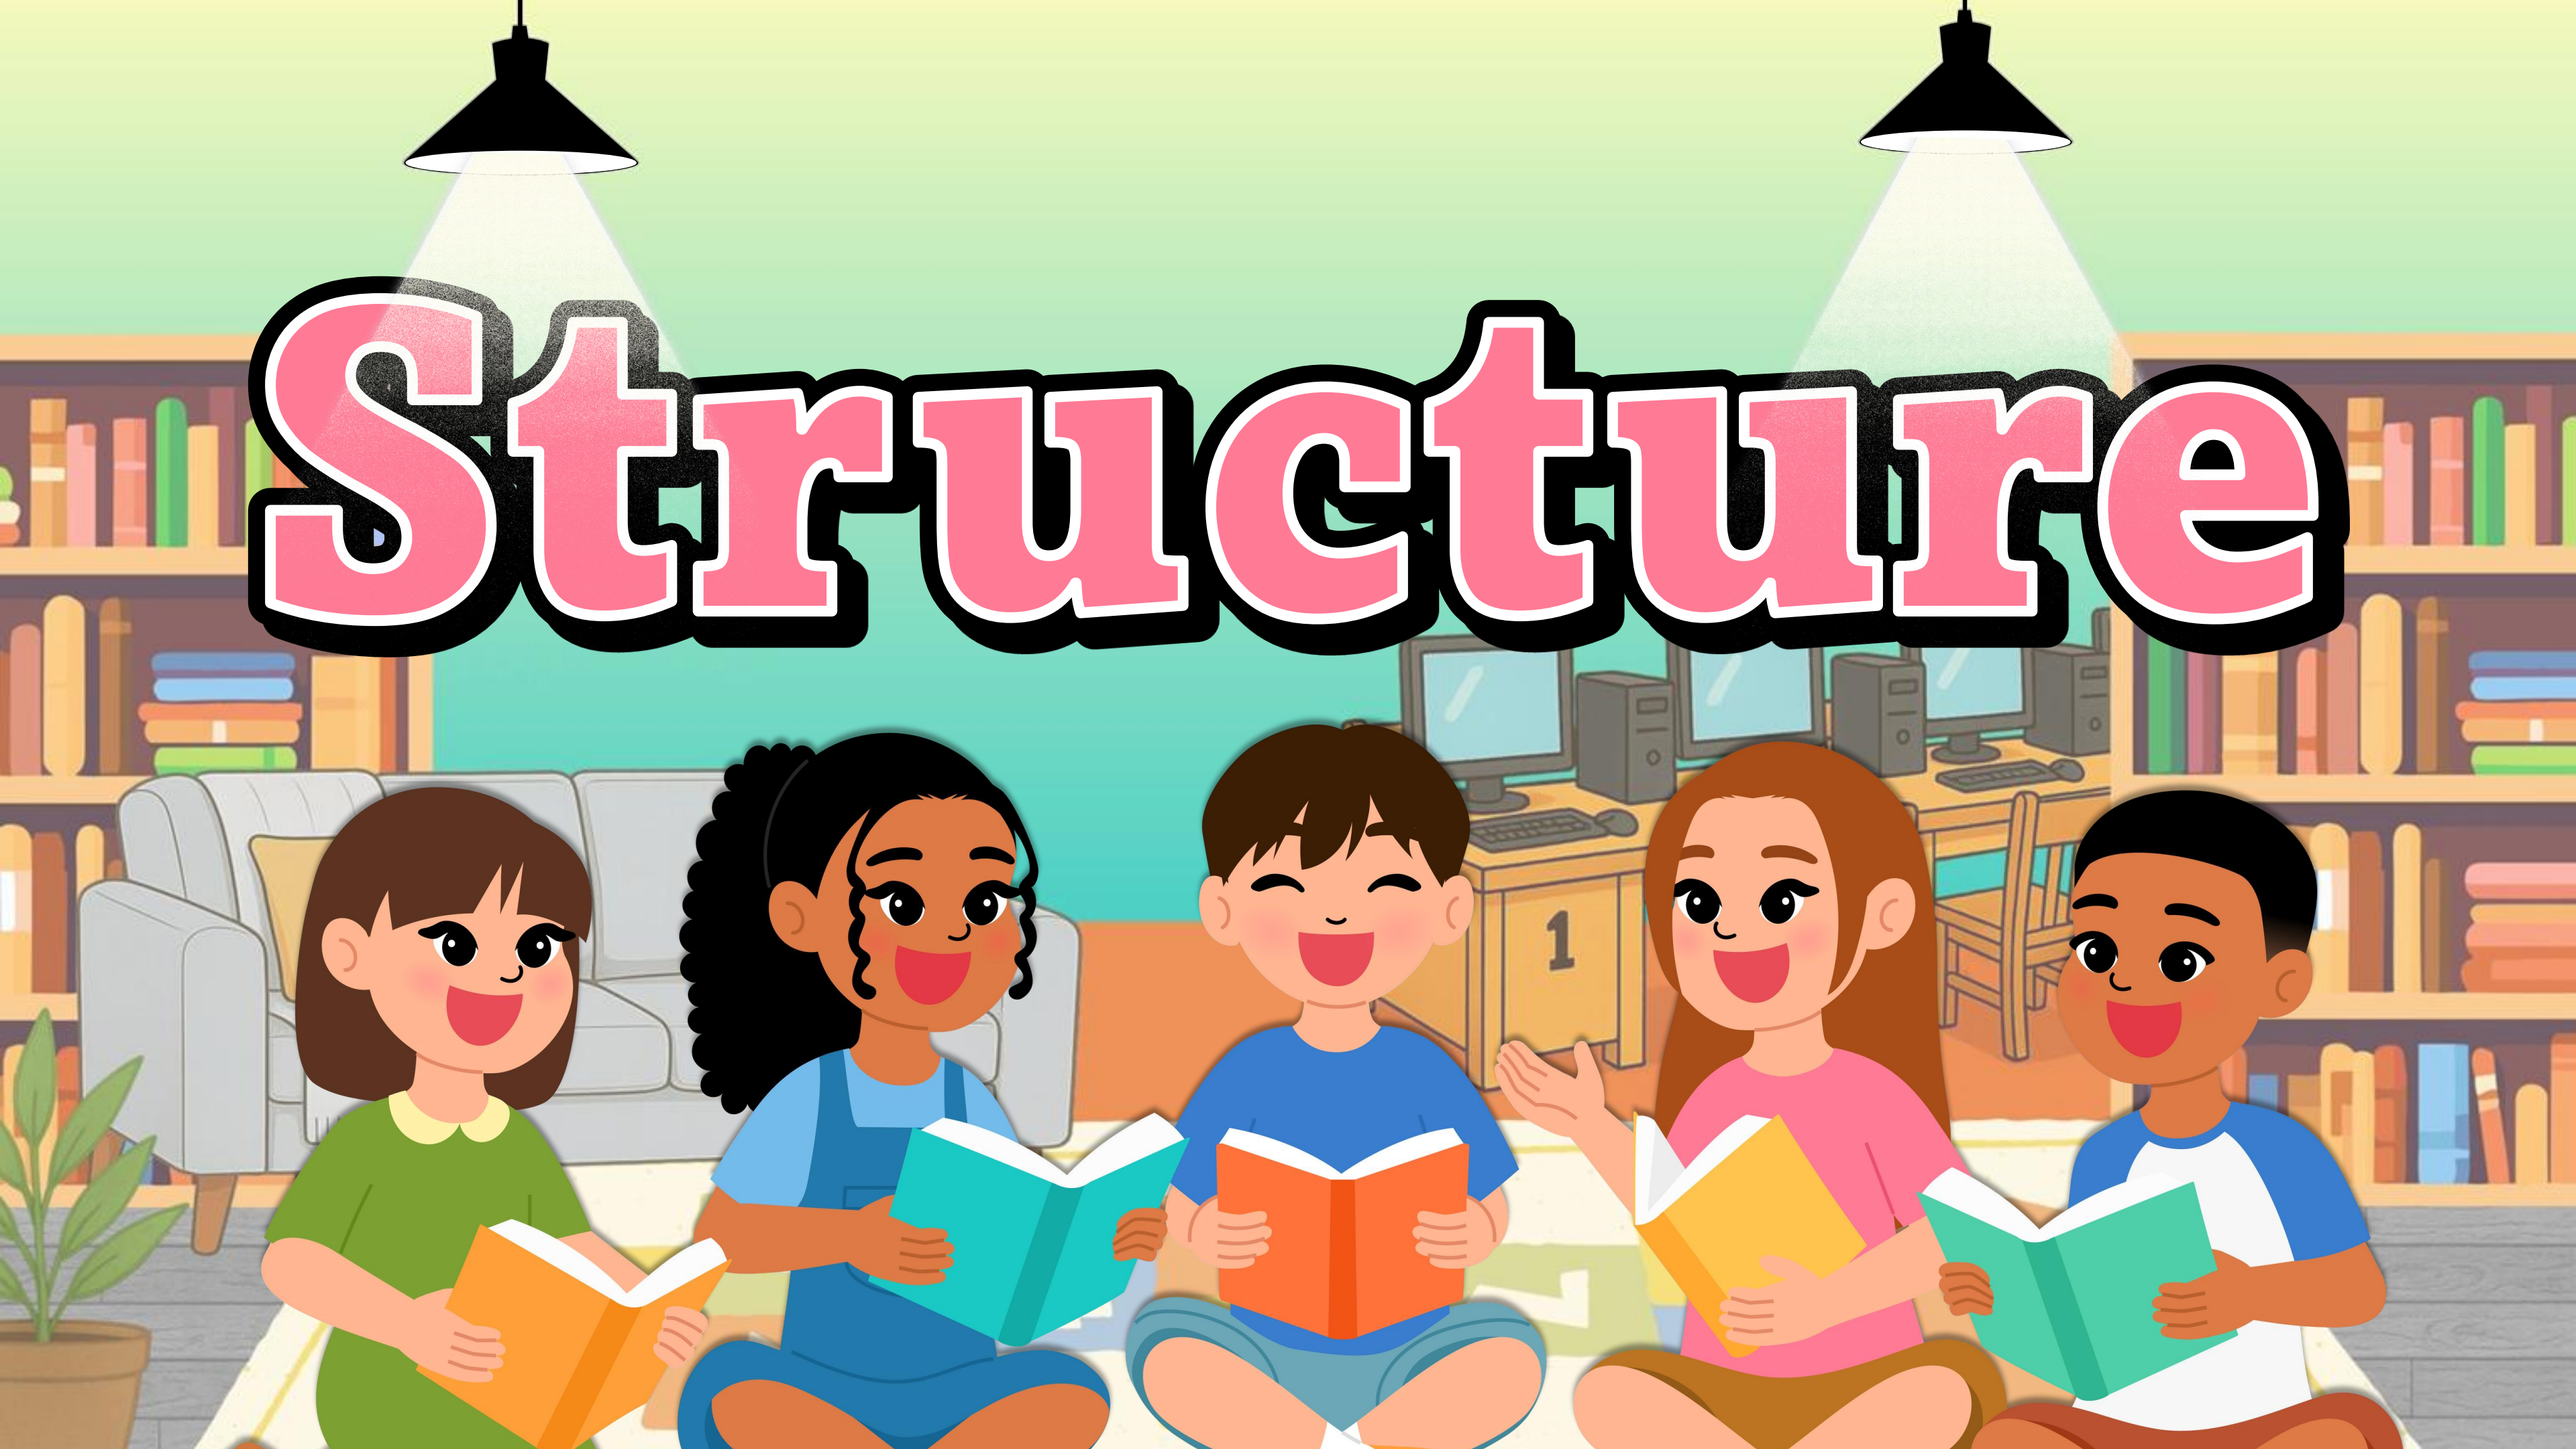
- If the alarm rings, leave the building immediately.
- If the light turns red, stop.



Structure

If-Clause Type 1

Structure = If + S + V1, S + will + V1.

If-clause	Main clause
If it rains,	we will stay inside.

- If-clause = the condition (cause)
- Main clause = the result (effect)
- If If-clause comes first, use a comma

If-Clause Type 1

Structure = S + will + V1 + if + S + V1.

Main clause	If-clause
we will stay inside	if it rains.

- If-clause = the condition (cause)
- Main clause = the result (effect)
- If main clause comes first, no comma

Affirmative

Structure = If + S + V1, S + will + V1.

- If you don’t wear a helmet, you will get hurt.
- If we save enough money, we will buy a new phone.
- If he feels tired, he will take a rest.

Affirmative

Structure = S + will + V1 + if + S + V1.

- I will call you if I finish work early.
- She will be happy if she passes the exam.
- They will miss the bus if they don’t hurry.
- The teacher will explain again if students don’t understand.

Negative Result

Structure = S + won't + V1 + if + S + V1.

- They won't arrive on time if they leave late.
- We won't catch the bus if we walk slowly.

Structure = If + S + V1, S + won't + V1.

- If they leave late, they won't arrive on time.
- If we walk slowly, we won't catch the bus.

Negative If-clause

If + S + don't / doesn't + V1, S + will + V1.

- If she doesn't wake up early, she will be late.
- If you don't study, you will fail.
- If she doesn't wake up early, she will miss the bus.

Both If-clause + Result are negative

If + S + don't / doesn't + V1, S + won't + V1.

- If you don't wear a seatbelt, you won't be safe.
- If students don't listen, they won't understand the lesson.
- If we don't recycle, we won't protect the environment.
