My weekend

Last weekend I decided to invite some friends to dinner. I bought lots of delicious food, including some ham and at about 6.00 I was cooking in the kitchen. The sun was shining and it was a beautiful evening, so, I opened the back door. Then the telephone rang. I went to answer it and when I came back the ham wasn't on the table. I looked out of the window. A cat was sitting on the wall and it was eating my ham. What could I do? I went quietly outside. The cat didn't look in my direction and it enjoyed the ham so much that it didn't hear me. I walked slowly up to it, I wanted to empty the water over its head. A bit cruel, I know but the ham was very expensive but at the last moment the cat heard me and escaped in the neighborhood.
