A nighttime photograph of the Sydney Harbour Bridge and the city skyline. In the foreground, a paved walkway runs along the water, with a railing on the right. To the left, there is an outdoor cafe with several tables and chairs, where people are seated. The cafe is illuminated by warm lights, and there are large umbrellas over the seating area. In the background, the Sydney Harbour Bridge is visible, along with various skyscrapers and buildings of the city, all lit up at night. The water reflects the lights from the buildings and the bridge.

Last night, I ate dinner.

“Last night at 6 PM,
I was eating dinner.”

“Last night at 6 PM, I ate dinner.”

(I started eating at 6 PM.)

“Last night at 6 PM, I was eating dinner.”

*(I started earlier; and at 6 PM,
I was in the process of eating dinner.)*

QUOTE OF THE DAY

You should never regret anything in life. If it's good, it's wonderful.
If it's bad,
it is experience.
